The Extinct Xiaole Zhan,2019-05-31 Young NZ Writers' Youth Laureate Award Editor's Choice An absolutely beautiful debut, etched with a compelling narrative and layered with poetic spells. - Emma Shi, award-winning poet and author of Elsewhere This was all a long time ago, back when you had just discovered the stupidity of days, and days, and days. There was the brittle-boned home at the very end of the dead-end street, a room of nostrilled violins, and Tasmanian tiger sleeping beneath the tree outside your window. You think you remember an old stone hall, a rib-caged ceiling, and a terror which filled the cold holes of your bones. You can't remember for sure. This was all a very long time ago. Told in a series of moving retellings over time, The Extinct examines what it means to remember and what it means to forget in the 'stupidity of days' forever destined to become yesterdays. A tale of magical realism told in stunning free prose. Astounding for its originality and for the young author's clear-eyed maturity.

The Cat and the Bird Géraldine Elschner,2012-03-20 A treasured painting by Paul Klee is the basis for this whimsical tale about a cat and a bird, and about the themes of freedom and friendship. A cat lives in a house filled with toys, but everyday she dreams of being free like the bird she watches through the window. Finally with the bird's help, she is able to escape and dance on the roofs of the city by moonlight. This lovely story unfolds in a series of playful, brilliantly colored illustrations based on the artist Paul Klee's work. Influenced by the artist's bright palette and use of shapes and line, the book culminates in a dazzling reproduction of Klee's Cat and Bird. Accompanied by information about the artist and this iconic painting, the book invites appreciation of the unfettered joyfulness that makes Klee one of the most universally loved artists of all time.
